

COLUMBIACHAMBER

PARTNERS FOR A GREATER COLUMBIA

Henri Baskins

Executive Vice President

Henri Baskins, a Charleston native, completed her undergraduate degree at Liberty University after attending College of Charleston and went on to the Georgia Institute of Technology for her MBA and MS degrees.

Henri's experience in leadership positions ranges from corporate settings to non-profits. She has been honored with several awards and distinctions, including Girls Scouts' Women of Distinction Award and Columbia College's Circle of Influence Award. For her work in telecommunications, she was inducted into the South Carolina Telecommunications Hall of Fame. Her passion for business and strategic planning guides her role here at the Chamber where she provides managerial and public policy direction.
